

COUNCIL FOR RESPONSIBLE NUTRITION-INTERNATIONAL

Fall 2021 Scientific Symposium Webinar Series

Women's Health: Optimal Nutrition Throughout the Lifecycle

SERIES MODERATED BY

Prof Edith Feskens
Wageningen University, Netherlands

Learn more and register:

www.crn-i.org/web

In 2021, CRN-I, in response to survey responses from Codex delegates, will focus on women's health by exploring unique nutritional needs, challenges, and opportunities at key life stages:

FRIDAY 5 Nov

6:30–8:00 am US EDT
11:30–13:00 CET / 10:30–12:00 GMT

Hidden hunger and consequences in German children — an unbelievable condition

Dr. Hans-Konrad Biesalski
University of Hohenheim,
Germany

Adolescent nutrition globally: Challenges and opportunities

Dr. Zulfiqar Bhutta
Aga Khan University,
Pakistan

WEDNESDAY 10 Nov

10:00–11:30 am US EST
16:00–17:30 CET / 15:00–16:30 GMT

The use of dietary supplements during pregnancy: A case study for precision nutrition

Dr. Regan Bailey
Purdue University,
United States

Mid-life tune up: Nutritional needs, challenges, and interventions for a healthy lifespan

Dr. Wen-Harn Pan
Sinica University, Taiwan

MONDAY 6 Dec

3:30–5:00 pm US EST
21:30–23:00 CET / 20:30–22:00 GMT

Unique challenges/opportunities with entitlement programs aimed at nutrition/health for women and children in the developed world

Dr. Heather Eicher-Miller
Purdue University,
United States

Recent developments in maternal, adolescent and child micronutrient interventions in low- and middle- income countries

Dr. Klaus Krämer
Sight & Life, Switzerland